Second Semester Sorority Pledging Ends As Sixteen Co-eds Sign

Las Amigas Head List With Four Pledges

Climaxing eight weeks of second semester rushing, sixteen rushees, Monday at four o'clock signed preference slips in the office of the Dean of Women. Second semester rushing in sororities is never very heavy. This is because of Inter-Sorority constitution rules which permit first semester freshman rushing. An effort is being made to change the constitution so that Freshman girls can be rushed only the second semester. This new constitution will be in final shape next fall. The Seven Sister Sorority was the only one which did not rush this season.

Mabel Stelzer, Betty Clantz, Wava Althans, and Dorothy Baxter signed Las Amigas. Skol pledges are Naomi Powell, Jean Kinney, and Frances Williamson. Marjorie Swarat, Elma Johnson, and Evelyn Feasel went Five Sister, while those signing for Phratra were Alice Beatty, Marian Jordan, and Beatrice Norton. The Three-Kay have as pledges Norma Weckerly, Elaine Andrews, and Grace Schmell.

Debate Teams Meet Success At Heidelberg

Eight debate teams, four men's, and four women's teams, traveled to Tiffin last Thursday, March 24 to compete in a practice tournament at Heidelberg College. Striving to afford their debaters a maximum of experience the coaches outlined the debate so that each team debated both negatively and affirmatively. Of the judged debates, Bowling Green won 5, lost 3, and tied one. There were several non-decision debates.

Five schools were represented in this practice round, including: Baldwin Wallace, Toledo U., DeSales, Bowling Green and Heidelberg. The sixteen debaters were paired as follows:

Highfield and Spittler
Cucuro and Rohrbaugh
Frank and Shine
Lee and Maddock
Schutzberg and West
Ault and Wirick
Squire and Keister

The next tournament will be held Saturday, April 2, at Akron U. This will also be a practice tourney, in preparation for the national Pi Kappa Delta tournament in Topeka, Kansas, April 18 to 26.

Falcons Welcome Baseball's Return

After a lapse of one season B. G. S. U. will again place a baseball team in the field. Through the courtesy of Mayor Bachman, who promises to get the city park diamond in condition, all home games will be played there due to the fact that at the present time the University has no field of its own. However, President Offenhauer stated that a diamond will be formed on the campus in the near future. The diamond will be located at the east end of the new stadium with the centerfield extending out to the northeast.

For the current season the Activities Committee has allotted $150 to defray expenses. William Nachtrab is manager of the team, having served his Junior managership as assistant manager of the basketball team.

This seasons schedule is as follows:

May 6—Hillsdale, there
May 17—Heidelberg, there
May 21—Findlay, there
May 24—Heidelberg, here
May 28—Findlay, here

A tentative game is booked with Kent State.

Of the candidates who have reported, three veterans have appeared. Dale Kuhlman is listed as an outfielder and pitcher Willard Bird, a third baseman and outfielder, and Ross an infielder and good hitter. After spring football, several more men with excellent sandlot experience will report to Coach Steller.

Mougey Elected Y. M. President

Richard Mougey was elected President of Y. M. C. A. for the coming year at the Y. M. meeting last Thursday. Other new officers are Robert Carmichael, vice-president; Wilbur Geltz, secretary; Leonard Kaiser, treasurer.

Miss Warner, physical education instructor here, will tell of her visit to South America and of her work there at the meeting this Thursday, March 31 at 7 p. m. The Hi-Y club of Bowling Green Senior High has been invited to attend this meeting as guests of the Y. M. C. A.

Foreign Language Club To Give Next Assembly

A glimpse of the life of the inhabitants of Germany, Spain, and France will be given by the Foreign Language Club at chapel, April 6.

The club has planned a short German play to be given by German students, and Spanish folk dances, by Spanish students. A group of French songs will be sung by Mrs. A. R. Siebens who was a native of France before coming to the United States. Many students have heard Mrs. Siebens sing and will want to hear her again.

Everything Happens to Them! Convention-Bound W. A. A.'s Get Lost, See Two Fires

Seeing a boat burn, an auto run amuck, and helping to rescue furniture from a burning house made the trip last week of five convention-bound W. A. A. girls more than they had bargained for. The five girls—Doris Cottrell, Shirley Hanna, Pauline Harrison, Marie Lutz, and Margaret Hurlburt, were attending the convention of the Athletic Association Federation of Ohio at Western Reserve University.

To begin with the bunch got lost going into Cleveland and thus were unable to show the greenies Euclid Avenue, the Public Square, etc. Fact is those who know Cleveland saw some new places.

And then the fire! They heard about the first one at Flora Stone Mather College, a part of Western Reserve, where they were being entertained. A fire at the docks. Much to everyone's disappointment there were no fire-boats although it was a boat, the "City of Buffalo" that was burning. In fact, there were only 15 fire-engines. But the fifteen did their work well as only the front of the boat burned.

Then as they were nearing Bowling Green on the last lap of the journey, the girls saw a lot of cars along the road and a house with smoke pouring from it. People were hurrying around carrying out furniture. Although there were some men sitting around doing nothing the W. A. A. girls could not remain idle. They plunged into the midst of the smoke to carry out furniture and canned goods—even some spoiled tomatoes! The big rescue of the day was a davenport that everyone said was too big to move. Hurly and P. Harrison went to work with a spoon and a knife as tools and took it to pieces so that it could be carried out. The girls however, acclaim an eight-year-old lad as the hero of the day.

Allen to Teach At U. of Texas

The University of Texas has invited Dr. Gay W. Allen to teach two courses in American literature in the summer session, beginning July 18 and ending August 29. One of these courses is a graduate class in American poetry, Dr. Allen's special field.

Dr. Allen says that the invitation came as a complete surprise, for he has had no correspondence with Texas; however, one of the Texas professors of English taught at Duke last summer during the time that Dr. Allen was there, and perhaps the invitation came through him.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen had already booked passage for a summer trip to Denmark but decided to postpone it so that Dr. Allen could accept the Texas offer.

Home Ec Dept. Sponsors Meet

The annual regional home economics conference was held in the Practical Arts building and at the Woman's Club, on Friday, March 25. Toledo, Bluffton, Heidelberg, and Defiance sent delegations, who registered at four o'clock, were taken through class rooms, work rooms, visited the practice apartment, and at 5 o'clock heard President Offenhauer speak at their business meeting. One hundred of the representatives had dinner together at the Woman's Club, which was followed by a talk by Dr. C. C. Kohl who spoke on "Changing Patterns in Family Life." Charlotte Iman and Sarah Leininger entertained the group with solos. Next year the conference will be held at Heidelberg.

New Amendment Allowing Extra Half Hour After Dances

Jane Hobart, Senior and prominent Skol, was elected President of the Women's League last Wednesday, March 23, by a large majority over Jessie Zimmerman, the only other nominee for the office.

Members of the Women's League, largest women's organization on the campus, also balloted last week for vice president, secretary, and treasurer. They were elected as follows: Vice President—Weldon Brooks 2nd Vice-Pres.—Wilma Holt Secretary—Marjorie Swarat Treasurer—Margaret Allen

An amendment to the constitution permitting an extra half hour after campus dances for co-eds to return to their place of residence was passed by the overwhelming majority of 344 to 6.

The amendment was worded as follows: Following all campus dances women shall be in place of residence at 12:30 A. M. Formerly the Women's League rules decreed that they be in at 12:00 o'clock.

The newly elected officers of the League will be installed this afternoon at the annual Women's League Installation and Tea Dance at 4:00 P. M. in the Reception Hall.

You Can Help B. G. S. U.

We are students at Bowling Green State University. That is a big title; however, we have a small "recognized" name. The majority of people outside the immediate vicinity think of our institution as "Normal School" or "State Teachers' College". Yet since 1929 we have been officially a "State College" and since 1935 we have been graced officially as "State University."

The local school has been growing steadily and it will continue to expand at a healthy rate. In the last two years the school has grown tremendously in spirit and general college life, two factors that have heretofore been noticeably lacking.

Our campus is a beautiful one. There are indeed very few colleges anywhere with an enrollment comparable to B. G. S. U. that has as new and complete a campus, buildings, equipment, as well as the location and arrangement and the possibilities that we now possess. Look at our grounds—the spacious lawns, buildings with a pleasing uniformity and recent improvements such as a concrete football stadium, richly adorned auditorium and an inviting Reception Room.

The Administration is not satisfied with stopping here. Some $300,000 for a new Women's Gymnasium and construction of tennis courts, resurfacing the football field, and building improvements have been authorized. Plans for a natatorium have been formulated.

Scholastically our school ranks high. Credits from here are readily accepted by other colleges. Individual attention from the professors is a contrast made in favor of B. G. S. U. as compared with large institutions.

Those in attendance at this school can aid the Administration and the school's standing by boosting the university to potential enrollees. Among the less favorable courses, we have a large number enrolled in the "Suitcase Parade" which is so noticeable every Friday. You "studs" that must go home can do the university a lot of good if you will point out some of the many advantages of B. G. S. U. to high school seniors whom you know, or to men influential in the community.

If only the student body en masse would adopt an attitude of appreciation, sincerity, and loyalty to B. G. S. U.,—we could come back next fall to see the largest enrollment in our history.

The alumni, many of them are doing their part in helping the school. But continued and increased support is essential to growth. It is up to every present student to advertise B. G. S. U. and to build up the prestige we are sorely in need of,—that alone will do much towards establishing our school, our soon-to-be Alma Mater, on a higher level than ever. Won't you accept the challenge and tell your friends that they will do right, too, by enrolling at B. G. S. U.

BOURNE TO GIVE
FINAL LECTURE

"Should the democracies stand against fascism?" This question was discussed by Miss Bourne, at her lecture last Monday evening, March 21.

Democracy, it was pointed out, cannot be preserved by fighting for upon the outbreak of wars democracy would be superseded by dictatorship.

Fascism, said Miss Bourne, does threaten the United States today, not from Europe and Asia, but from within. Threats to our democracy are the conscription bills; the pressure of powerful militaristic lobbies in Congress for selfish gains; the President's attempt to conquer the depression by an inflationary rearmament; determination of the government to protect private interests abroad by the sacrifice of life; the organization of adolescents susceptible to uniforms and without hope of jobs in civilian pursuits; the army of millions of unemployed men who can be thrown into military service by simply withdrawing government work and the dole.

These are the factors which have led to dictatorship abroad and are definitely tending in that direction here.

The last peace lecture of the series will be "Is Patriotism Enough?" The lecture will be given at 8:00 Monday, April 4 in the Library room of the Ad. Building.

McEwen Announces Opera Contest

W. A. A. GIRLS GET LOST

It seems he dashed to the canned goods cupboard with a challenge to his colleagues all about his age—"C'mon men!"

As for the auto wreck, it was just an after-effect of the fire. A car turning out to avoid the fire-engine was hit by a Ford, went into a ditch, knocked down a telephone pole, and ended up in a corn-field. Incidentally, no one was hurt, the house was saved, and although the girls coughed all the way back to town no ill effects were suffered.

What! Again?

By Rawbaw

It seems the intellectual life of many of our students has been directed toward Toledo. Referring, of course, to the Swedish Exhibit at the Art Museum and not to the opening of the Capitol.

Speaking of art, I have heard several times that the titles and the author's name ought to be put under the copies of the paintings we have in our library. Certainly there ought to be better lighting. Some of them need remounting.

Personally I never thought it mattered much. No matter how good a collection we might have, or how well they may be displayed, the general run of students wouldn't understand them enough to appreciate them. I always supposed chapel programs, if they have a place in a state school, would be the place where an appreciation of such things might be taught.

So comes the subject of chapel. Why couldn't there be a little spot or footlight thrown on the stage during a program. Looking at silhouettes or grotesque shadowed figures becomes tiresome even in the best of programs.

TO PUBLICIZE PRODUCTION OF 'PIRATES OF PENZANCE'
TO BE PRESENTED IN MAY

Prof. McEwen and the cast of the Opera "Pirates of Penzance" have announced a contest starting this week.

The opera will be presented by the Music Dept. May 10 and 11. There are many rather uncommon words used in this comic opera and it is thought that students and faculty will enjoy guessing or finding the meaning of the words, and of course the lucky persons will be well rewarded for their efforts. The prize has not as yet been announced but rest assured it will be a worthy one. Get acquainted with the "Pirates of Penzance" and be one of the fortunate individuals. The lucky student and the lucky faculty member will be handsomely rewarded.

Here are the directions in a "nutshell". Look up the meaning of a number of simple Gilbert words and place brief definitions of them in writing in the Bee Gee News box by Monday at 9 A. M. of each week for five weeks.

To make it easy, the required list will be printed for each issue of the News. Here is the first list: (be sure to get your definition in by Monday at 9 a. m. with your name signed) 1. Penzance; 2. Glass (referring to weather); 3. Impunity; 4. "Parsonified"; 5. Felicity.

Members of the cast and the faculty of the Music Department are not eligible to take part in this contest.

A Feature About A Feature

Now this, ladies and gentleman, is to be a feature story. On what? A feature story on why we don't have a feature, if you please. It all comes about this way.

George Beattie looks over the galley proof and sees there is no feature story. Immediately he jumps all over Tony Francis. Why jump on poor Tony you say? Is he feature editor? No indeed. George just jumps over Tony because he is the only one on the staff who can take it without pouting and quitting the paper.

After every body present at the meeting takes their turn at passing the buck some one's eagle eye rests on an old mast-head and they find that there is a whole flock of feature editors listed. However, since it is by now past midnight, all of them have gone home except Andy Rohrbaugh who is curled up in the corner asleep.

"Hay Rohrbaugh", hollers the editor, drumming a ripe staccatto on the small of the sleeping journalists' back with the toe of his shoe. "We must have a feature story next week. Two hundred words."

"On what?" is the inquiry from the poor fellow who hasn't found a good topic since it quit being fashionable to pan the library.

So he trudges home to get up bright and early the next morning and get a story. Oh yeah? What we mean is that is what he ought to do.

Now a feature story is some little incident that is not important but can be written up interestingly. However it is the policy of the paper to save those incidents a week or two and write them up as front page news, so the poor fellow isn't left a lot to write on. He passes by several rumors and leads to good stories and spends his time worrying about it between naps in class time. What is the result? Well, look this one over.

Campus Clatter

Congratulations to the W. A. A. for offering the campus an opportunity for informal gathering—their carnival was very successful—much student talent was brought to light.

Seen at the carnival—Hillbillies in the making—Peg Slade and Mary Alice Hawley who received applause for their rendition of "The Old Apple Tree in the Orchard"—realistic was their version—many thought they should return to the hills—Darling, petite, and deceptively dressed as tin soldiers were Kay and Chris—they presented a clever tap routine—why keep your friends in the dark, Kay?—Any more hidden talent?—As an athlete, Betty Bishop is well known—we meet her now as a toe dancer—Marie Lutz was the biggest fish at the fish pond—Seen conversing at odd times with Marie Baker—"Abie" Powell and "Duff" Madaras—others interested in Marie are Lyn Powell and Dale Herbert—Helen Sullins who for some reason has not had a date this year—and who seems to be interested in housing conditions (ask members of her Hygiene class)—was an enticing hula dancer—Grazia Grant had a sign on her stand—"Watch for the winning ticket, a kiss to the winner"—who won, Grazia?—or was there a winning ticket?—the fellows failed to find one!—Rita Haskins was present as carnival fortune teller—very charming—"Crisco" (lard in can) Keown trailed Virginia Cross all evening.

SPORT SHAVINGS

BY BOB BARON

Joe Chapoton is sixth in a series of guest columnists substituting for Bob Baron.

This is the time of the year when the thoughts of the young lads of halls of learning turn to spring football practice. Bowling Green State U. is no exception as Harry Ockerman, the head man of the football wars about the hallowed old walls of this institution, drives his charges through their daily paces in an effort to strike upon a pre-view of his 1938 grid machine.

Heading the Falcons who are preparing for the annual intracub debacle in four weeks and a subsequent tough eight game schedule next fall, is Wayne Stewart, Ockerman's captain-elect for the '38 contingent. Stewart, who is looked upon to carry the burden of the Falcons' offense next fall, has left little to be desired in the line of performances to date. Stewart, playing in the tail back position will do a little better than all right for himself and in the opinion of the Head Man and his mates, he will do all right until a better one comes along.

Rounding out the backfield with Stewart is chipper little Arch Steele at quarter surrounded by Rod Boyer and Paul Miles at the halves. Veterans that cannot be counted out and are to be considered a distinct threat to any one of the above men's jobs are Steve Penton and Al Soskey.

The "pansy" frosh that are trying to disprove their 'handle' donated to them by Doc Lake are John Keown, Tom Sass, Bill Woodward, Steve Brudzinski, Ted Grignon, Ed. Mus-sill, Darrell Gatchell and "Elzie" Niebeck. Every one of these boys must be counted "in the money" and cannot be considered as "also rans" by the Veterans.

This rounds out the list of backs that promises to give Bee Gee one of the best quartet of ball carriers to represent Bowling Green in many a moon.

Next week this column will carry a review of Coach Ockerman's forward wall candidates.

TABLE TENNIS TEAM EDGES FINDLAY 5 TO 4

Before a fairly large group of interested fans the university men's table tennis team defeated a Findlay College squad 5 to 4 in a match played Thursday afternoon in the Physical Education building. It was the first time that table tennis has been played competitively between Northwestern Ohio colleges.

Facing an unknown quality but rather expecting an easy victory, the Falcon sextette was surprised by the less spectacular but more steady play of the visitors.

However, aided by the accurate shot making of Wilke, Baron, Hagemeyer, and Conrad, the locals managed to eke out the slim victory.

Scores of the matches were: Wilke drubbed Rosencrans 21-15, 21-15; Michels lost to Edie 21-11, 28-26; Baron beat Abrahms 21-14, 21-13; Hagemeyer downed Richards 21-13, 21-10; Madaras fell to Dickey 24-22, 21-19; and Conrad dropped DeVore 21-18, 18-21, 21-17.

In doubles matches Wilke and Baron trounced Edie and Abrahms 21-10, 21-16; Hagemeyer and Madaras fell to Richards and DeVore 15-21, 21-19, 21-19; Michels and Conrad were beaten by Rosencrans and Dickey 21-15, 21-16.

A return match is tentatively scheduled with Findlay for

Sweep In Shot Put And Hurdles Brings Victory

Two New Records Set

With Captain Bob Eshelman scoring 16 1-4 points, the Oberlin thinclads just missed overcoming a lead which the Falcons had held since the first event of the day and Bee Gee was able to defeat Oberlin by the score of 48 to 47 in the last indoor meet of the season Saturday, March 26.

The Falcons were able to win the meet mainly due to the fact that they swept all three places in the shot put and high hurdles, and thus became the first Falcon track team to ever defeat an Oberlin squad.

Two records were broken during the meet. One, in the 440 where Eshelman cut the time to 53.8, and the other in the 880 where Strong of Oberlin ran the distance in 2:07.8.

For Bowling Green, H. Kinney was high point man scoring 6 points: a second in both hurdle races. He was closely followed by Klenner, Rozelle, Hagemeyer, and Gernert who score 5 points each.

Results of the meet:

INTRAMURAL CHATTER

By "Abe" Keown

This department realizes that with the fine spring days at hand the attendance at the game rooms has dropped off considerably. However, ping pong, checkers, and shuffle board equipment are available every day and on Monday and Wednesday evenings between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Within the last week archery targets and equipment have been made available at the P. E. stock room. Horse shoes may also be secured at the stock room.

The latest intramural activity in the form of the volley ball league is well underway and will hold the spot light until the All-College Intramural Soft ball league is announced. Independents and Fraternity managers should start lining up material, for this tournament.

TEA-DANCE THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon at four o'clock Collegians and co-eds will gather in the Reception Hall to dance to the music of Wayne Williams and his orchestra. The dance is in honor of the new Women's League officers, and is an annual All-Campus affair. The only other tea-dance on the calendar is the May Day tea dance sponsored by the Seven Sisters Sorority. At least one hundred couples are expected to attend. Dorothy Robertson is in charge of arrangements.

LAS AMIGAS

Las Amigas Rushees were entertained with "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," after which they were taken to Pierce's for a light lunch. Twelve rushees were entertained at this last party. Monday night, after rushees pledges they were guests at the sorority house.

GLEE CLUB FORMAL

The annual Spring Dance of the Glee Club will be on April 8th and not as listed on the Calendar. The dance will follow the club's annual tour, which starts Sunday. On the same evening as the formal, the club will give a concert in the Practical Arts Building.

PHRATRA

Phratra Sorority entertained rushees at Pierce's Restaurant on Tuesday, March 22, at a 6:30 formal dinner. After dinner all enjoyed themselves playing cards. Those present were Alice Beatty, Beatrice Norton, Ar-meda Van Meter, Elaine Andrews, Ruth Baxter, Ruth Barnes, Marion Jordan, Miss Beattie and members.

Phratra Sorority will hold its annual formal dance Friday night, April 1 in the reception hall.

COMMONER

Commoner pledges are still recuperating from the "Hell Night" they embarked upon last Monday night, and returned—well you guess. Pledge-master Cal Kellogg stated that he was well pleased and a bit surprised by the plebes' knowledge of the geography of the somewhat immediate vicinity. The brothers enjoyed the lost and forlorn looks when they said, "last stop, all out!" The plebe's confused mind: striped cat . . . live rat . . . long ride . . . mayor's signature . . . Fraternity "lonely road . . . 3:00 A. M. . . miles back . . . beastly night . . . worth it? . . . 8 o'clock class . . . Ho hum!

Brother Len Trout, who spent a short sojourn in General Hospital last week, is now recovering from a stomach malady in his home at North Baltimore

DELHI

Frankie Schenk's orchestra from Lima has been obtained for the Spring Formal to be held in the Toledo Yacht Club April 9.

Frankie Schenk's has played at the Universities of Michigan, Kentucky, and Virginia, and is well known in university circles.

Open house was held with about 300 people visiting the new house last Sunday.

Alumni visiting were Howard Berry, Carl McColloch, Walter Barnes and "Doc" Allensworth.

FIVE BROTHERS

Some few of the boys at the house are being caught without their pins and are being given the regular "dunking".

"Bud" Belding is reported as being much improved and visitors are now allowed to see him.

The Business Ad. students have been laboring to make the house look like an office.

SEVEN SISTERS

Last Wednesday evening the Seven Sister Sorority entertained informally the fellows from the Commoner House. The evening was spent in playing Bingo and singing songs. Ice cream and wafers were served late in the evening.

On Friday afternoon six of the Sevens braved the elements and started on a bicycle hike. When the rain caught them they grabbed their lunches and hurried to Mrs. Urschel's home on Troupe Ave. Those who went were Frances Woodward, Norma Sheer, Mildred Manhart, Virginia Cross, Delores Yawberg and Miss Grace Tressel.

Miss Ellen Rudolph, a former Seven and now enrolled at Ohio State University, spent Friday and Saturday at the house.

Mrs. Ruth McWilliams who has been ill with the "flu" this past week, confined to her home at Grand Rapids, was able to return to the hall Monday, March 28.

The 12:30 limit after campus dances was hailed with much approval by the girls, as one-half hour was too short a time to go downtown to eat. The girls now feel that they will have time to walk the distance and still be in on time.

SKOL

The Skol Sorority pledge service was held last night at the house. Linda Dill, former Skol and May Queen, visited here last week. Linda is now studying at Syracuse University.
